

I do not support the consolidation of media ownership in the US. As a concerned citizen I challenge FCC Commissioners to actively and responsibly represent the opinions and rights of Americans in maintaining diversity and globalization of media ownership.